
Oncofertility Consortium: Featured Projects Over the Past 5 Years (2021-2025)

Dear Oncofertility Consortium Colleagues,

We are pleased to highlight several featured projects we have carried out together over the past five years (2021–2025). Through collaboration with your outstanding groups and organizations, the Oncofertility Consortium continues to provide patients with essential support in reproductive health and long-term quality of life. Our collaboration sets a new standard in the field and serves as a strong foundation for our future joint efforts. We sincerely thank you and all stakeholders for your continued support and partnership.
